Felony Hit and Run – On January 15 at 7:09AM, officers responded to the 8300 block of Sudley Rd. in Manassas (20109) to investigate a hit and run crash. The victim, a 22-year-old woman, reported to police that while in the parking lot of the above location, a white van struck her vehicle from behind. When the victim attempted to contact the driver of the white van, later identified as the accused, he fled the area. While investigating, officers were informed of a second crash involving the same white van, as it was leaving the above area. The investigation into the second crash revealed that while traveling on Sudley Rd. the van entered the left turn lane and struck a stationary vehicle. The force from the impact pushed the stationary vehicle into the vehicle in front of it. The van then drove over the median and continued the left turn onto Crestwood Dr. A short time later, officers observed the white van turn onto Ashton Ave. traveling northbound in the southbound lane. The van traveled a short distance on Ashton Ave. before crossing over the median into the northbound lanes of travel. Officers then activated their emergency equipment and attempted to conduct a traffic stop of the van. The driver of the van disregarded the officers emergency equipment and continued to flee towards Sudley Manor Dr. where there was a red traffic signal. The van continued driving and crashed into a stationary Toyota Prius before reversing and striking a marked police cruiser. At that time, additional officers were able to prevent the van from continuing to drive and officers took the accused into custody. Two occupants of the Prius were transported to an area hospital for minor injuries. No additional injuries were reported. The accused was transported to an area hospital for further investigation before being released to police custody. Following the investigation, the accused, identified as Jonathan David MENDEZ AGUEDA, was arrested.
